SKINS Learning Academy

St. Henry Elementary has partnered with Wright State University-Lake Campus to offer Saturday morning tutoring sessions in reading and writing for K-3 students. Wright State University is providing students from their education program to tutor. The sessions will be held at St. Henry Elementary from 10:30 a.m.-12:00 noon.

The focus of the SKINS Learning Academy is to help students who experience difficulties in the area of reading and/or writing by providing assessments and individualized, small group instruction for students of St. Henry and surrounding communities.

The spring session begins on Saturday, January 28 and ends on Saturday, April 8, with no class Presidents Weekend. The ten sessions are offered at a cost of $100.
To participate, send the following information and a check payable to St. Henry Schools to St. Henry Elementary, SKINS Learning Academy, 251 East Columbus Street, St. Henry, OH 45883-9575 by January 20. Registration is determined on a first come basis.
